Living in the hills, a way of life found no where else. In Kandy, where battles raged, kings ruled and invaders were repelled, history plays a major role. At the Chaaya Citadel Kandy, we'll show you exactly how that history came to be and the abundance of culture, heritage and traditions that surround that history and surrounds the life of the people of Kandy still. Come visit us, experience what it's like to wake up to cool misty mornings, surrounded by breathtaking views of mountains, rivers and valleys and days filled with fun and excitement laced with awe inspiring stories of legends that thrive in the city of Kandy.

Within the hotel

Begin your day to the serenade of the birds and to the view of the whole town covered in mist. Enjoy the view at the Chaaya Citadel Kandy, which consists of 24 deluxe rooms and suites, and 97 superior rooms. The superior rooms come with Air conditioning, TV, Mini-bar, in-room safes, and Telephones with IDD facilities, while the deluxe rooms come with a DVD player, and possess beautiful interiors adorned with hand-woven hangings and doors painted in traditional Kandyan style to reflect the rich culture and heritage of Kandy.

Out on the lake

Spend a quiet romantic afternoon on a boat ride on the Mahaweli river, while you watch a gorgeous sunset behind the misty mountains. If you're a nature lover then there's no better place for you, you'll love the peace and tranquility that surrounds the lake in the twilight hours.

Citadel recreation

The hotel swimming pool presents an exhilarating way to relax in the cool surroundings of the hills. Its also a good way for family time, where you can splash in the waters with the kids or watch them go wild with the kiddies slide. Making memories was never easier. If you're a sun worshipper and love to work on that tan, then you can always sunbathe on the wide terrace, or if you're into something a bit more active, try your skills at Billiards, Snooker and Table Tennis or just enjoy the quiet romantic calm atmosphere while you listen to the live band serenading you.

Dining amidst the hills

The large main restaurant serves international buffet style breakfast, lunch and dinner and also offers you a truly magnificent picturesque view of the Mahaweli river. But that's not all, our Fine Dining Restaurant offers a la carte menus in beautiful surroundings where you can enjoy a fabulous meal with your loved one. This is your chance to savour traditional Sri Lankan meals, which were savoured back in the days gone by, when kings ruled this city of Kandy. If you're looking to lift your spirits, then the hotel bar is available to satisfy your tastes.
